WELCOME TO OUR WORSHIP GATHERING

Call to Worship

Minister This is the day that the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it. Psalm 118:24

Opening Hymn

#25 Alleluia! Raise The Anthem

1. Alleluia! Raise the anthem,
let the skies resound with praise;
sing to Christ who paid our ransom,
Ancient of eternal days,
God eternal, Word incarnate,
whom the heaven of heaven obeys.

2. Long before he formed the mountains, spread the seas or made the sky,
love eternal free and boundless,
moved the Lord of life to die;
foreordained the Prince of princes
for the throne of Calvary.

3. There for us and our redemption
see him all his life-blood pour:
There he wins our full salvation, dies that we may die no more -
then arising lives for ever,
King of kings whom we adore.

4. Now above the vast creation,
high in God's all-holy light,
there he lives and reigns in triumph,
bears the marks of mortal fight;
there his own, redeemed for ever,
sing in wonder day and night.

5. Praise and honor to the Father, praise and honor to the Son,
praise and honor to the Spirit,
ever Three and ever One:
One in grace and one in glory
while eternal ages run!

The First Lesson                      Numbers 22: 1-21

A reading from the 22nd chapter of the book of Numbers.

Then the Israelites traveled to the plains of Moab and camped along the Jordan across from Jericho.
Now Balak son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites, and Moab was terrified because there were so many people. Indeed, Moab was filled with dread because of the Israelites.

The Moabites said to the elders of Midian, "This horde is going to lick up everything around us, as an ox licks up the grass of the field."

So Balak son of Zippor, who was king of Moab at that time, sent messengers to summon Balaam son of Beor, who was at Pethor, near the Euphrates River, in his native land. Balak said:

"A people has come out of Egypt; they cover the face of the land and have settled next to me. Now come and put a curse on these people, because they are too powerful for me. Perhaps then I will be able to defeat them and drive them out of the land.
For I know that whoever you bless is blessed, and whoever you curse is cursed."

The elders of Moab and Midian left, taking with them
the fee for divination. When they came to Balaam, they told him what Balak had said.

"Spend the night here," Balaam said to them, "and I will report back to you with the answer the LORD gives me." So the Moabite officials stayed with him.
God came to Balaam and asked, "Who are these men with you?"

Balaam said to God, "Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab, sent me this message: 'A people that has come out of Egypt covers the face of the land. Now come and put a curse on them for me. Perhaps then I will be able to fight them and drive them away.'"
But God said to Balaam, "Do not go with them. You must not put a curse on those people, because they are blessed."

The next morning Balaam got up and said to Balak's officials, "Go back to your own country, for the LORD has refused to let me go with you."

So the Moabite officials returned to Balak and said,
"Balaam refused to come with us."

Then Balak sent other officials, more numerous and more distinguished than the first. They came to Balaam and said:

“This is what Balak son of Zippor says: Do not let anything keep you from coming to me, because I will reward you handsomely and do whatever you say. Come and put a curse on these people for me.”

But Balaam answered them, “Even if Balak gave me all the silver and gold in his palace, I could not do anything great or small to go beyond the command of the LORD my God. Now spend the night here so that I can find out what else the LORD will tell me.” That night God came to Balaam and said, “Since these men have come to summon you, go with them, but do only what I tell you.”

Balaam got up in the morning, saddled his donkey and went with the Moabite officials. (NIV) The word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

Psalm 121

I lift up my eyes to the hills; from where is my help to come?

My help comes from the Lord, the maker of heaven and earth.

He will not let your foot be moved and he who watches over you will not fall asleep.

Behold, he who keeps watch over Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep;

The Lord himself watches over you; the Lord is your shade at your right hand,

So that the sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night.

The Lord shall preserve you from all evil; it is he who shall keep you safe.

The Lord shall watch over your going out and your coming in, from this time forth for evermore.(BAS)

All: Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: As it was in the beginning, is now, and shall be forever; world without end. Amen.

Psalm 122

I was glad when they said to me, “Let us go to the house of the Lord.”

Now our feet are standing within your gates, O Jerusalem.

Jerusalem is built as a city that is at unity with itself. To which the tribes go up, the tribes of the Lord, the assembly of Israel, to praise the name of the Lord.

For there are the thrones of judgement, the thrones of the house of David.

Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: “May they prosper who love you”.

Peace be within your walls and quietness within your towers.

For my brethren and companions’ sake, I pray for your prosperity.

Because of the house of the Lord our God, I will seek to do you good.”(BAS)

All: Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: As it was in the beginning, is now, and shall be forever; world without end. Amen.

The Second Lesson I Corinthians 15: 50b-58

A reading from the 50th verse of the 15th chapter of the book of I Corinthians.

The perishable does not inherit the imperishable. Listen, I tell you a mystery: We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed—in a flash, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed. For the perishable must clothe itself with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality. When the perishable has been clothed with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality, then the saying that is written will come true: "Death has been swallowed up in victory."

"Where, O death, is your victory?

Where, O death, is your sting?"

The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Therefore, my dear brothers and sisters, stand firm. Let nothing move you. Always give yourselves fully to the work of the Lord, because you know that your labor in the Lord is not in vain.

The Song of Moses (Exodus 15: 1-18)

I will sing to the Lord for his glorious triumph;
the horse and the rider he has hurled into the sea.

The Lord has become my strength and refuge;
the Lord himself has become my saviour.

He is my God and I will praise him;
my father's God and I will exalt him.

The Lord himself is a mighty warrior;
the Lord, the Lord is his name.

Your right hand, O Lord, is majestic in power;
your right hand, O Lord, shatters the enemy.

Who is like you, O Lord, among the gods,
holy, awesome, worker of wonders?

In steadfast love you led your people,
you guided your redeemed with your great strength.

You brought them in safety to your holy place,
and planted them firm on your own mountain.

You brought them into your own house.

The Lord shall reign for ever and ever. (BAS)

The Gospel

Reader The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Reader The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke, chapter 7, verses 11 to 17.

People

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Soon afterward Jesus went to a town called Nain, and his disciples and a great crowd went with him. As he drew near to the gate of the town, behold, a man who had died was being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow, and a considerable crowd from the town was with her. And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her and said to her, "Do not weep." Then he came up and touched the bier, and the bearers stood still. And he said, "Young man, I say to you, arise." And the dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus gave him to his mother. Fear seized them all, and they glorified God, saying, "A great prophet has arisen among us!" and "God has visited his people!" And this report about him spread through the whole of Judea and all the surrounding country. (ESV) The Gospel of Christ
