Welcome to Our Worship Gathering

Prelude Music

Call to Worship & Welcome

Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and sin which clings closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us looking unto Jesus the founder and perfecter of our faith.

Heb. 12:1-2

Confession and Absolution

Lead Let us humbly confess our sins to Almighty God.

All Almighty and most merciful Father, we have erred and strayed from your ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the evil intentions and desires of our own hearts. We have broken your holy laws. We have left undone the things that we ought to have done; and we have done the things that we ought not to have done; and there is no spiritual soundness within us.

Have mercy on us, pitiful sinners, O Lord. Spare those who confess their sins.

Restore those who truly repent, even as you have promised through Jesus Christ our Lord. And grant, merciful Father, for his sake, that we may live from this time forward a godly, righteous and holy life, to the glory of your holy Name. Amen.

Lead Merciful God, grant to your faithful people pardon and peace; that they may be cleansed from all their sins, and serve you with a quiet mind; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

All Our Father who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy Name,
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive them
that trespass against us;
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory,
For ever and ever. Amen.

Lead Open our lips, O Lord.

All And we shall declare your praise.

Lead O God, make speed to save us.

All O Lord, make haste to help us.

Lead Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

All As it was in the beginning, is now, and shall be forever; world without end. Amen.

Lead Let us praise the Lord.

All The Lord's Name be praised.

Venite: Psalm 95:1-7

O come, let us sing unto the Lord let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our salvation. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving, and show ourselves glad in him with psalms.

For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods. In his hand are all the corners of the earth: and the strength of the hills is his also. The sea is his, and he made it: and his hands prepared the dry land.

O come, let us worship, and fall down, and kneel before the Lord our Maker. For he is the Lord our God; and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.

Today, O that ye would hear his voice: 'Harden not your hearts as in the Provocation, and as in the day of Temptation in the wilderness; When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works. Forty years long was I grieved with that generation, and said, "It is a people that do err in their hearts, for they have not known my ways"; Unto whom I swear in my wrath, that they should not enter into my rest.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

The Psalm: Psalm 26

Lead Vindicate me, Lord, for I have led a blameless life; I have trusted in the Lord and have not faltered.

All Test me, Lord, and try me, examine my heart and my mind;

Lead for I have always been mindful of your unfailing love and have lived in reliance on your faithfulness.

All I do not sit with the deceitful, nor do I associate with hypocrites.

Lead I abhor the assembly of evildoers and refuse to sit with the wicked.

All I wash my hands in innocence, and go about your altar, Lord,

Lead proclaiming aloud your praise and telling of all your wonderful deeds.

All Lord, I love the house where you live, the place where your glory dwells.

Lead Do not take away my soul along with sinners, my life with those who are bloodthirsty,

All in whose hands are wicked schemes, whose right hands are full of bribes.

Lead I lead a blameless life; deliver me and be merciful to me.

All My feet stand on level ground; in the great congregation I will praise the Lord.

Lead Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:

All As it was in the beginning, is now, and shall be forever; world without end. Amen.

The 1st Reading: 1Kings 10:1-13

The first reading is from the tenth chapter of the book of First Kings, beginning at the first verse.

When the queen of Sheba heard about the fame of Solomon and his relationship to the Lord, she came to test Solomon with hard questions.² Arriving at Jerusalem with a very great caravan—with camels carrying spices, large quantities of gold, and precious stones—she came to Solomon and talked with him about all that she had on her mind. ³ Solomon answered all her questions; nothing was too hard for the king to explain to her. ⁴ When the queen of Sheba saw all the wisdom of Solomon and the palace he had built, ⁵ the food on his table, the seating of his officials, the attending servants in their robes, his cupbearers, and the burnt offerings he made at the temple of the Lord, she was overwhelmed.

⁶ She said to the king, “The report I heard in my own country about your achievements and your wisdom is true. ⁷ But I did not believe these things until I came and saw with my own eyes. Indeed, not even half was told me; in wisdom and wealth you have far exceeded the report I heard. ⁸ How happy your people must be! How happy your officials, who continually stand before you and hear your wisdom! ⁹ Praise be to the Lord your God, who has delighted in you and placed you on the throne of Israel. Because of the Lord’s eternal love for Israel, he has made you king to maintain justice and righteousness.”

¹⁰ And she gave the king 120 talents of gold, large quantities of spices, and precious stones. Never again were so many spices brought in as those the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

¹¹ (Hiram’s ships brought gold from Ophir; and from there they brought great cargoes of almuqwood and precious stones. ¹² The king used the almuqwood to make supports for the temple of the Lord and for the royal palace, and to make harps and lyres for the musicians. So much almuqwood has never been imported or seen since that day.)

¹³ King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba all she desired and asked for, besides what he had given her out of his royal bounty. Then she left and returned with her retinue to her own country.

Te Deum

We praise you, O God; we acknowledge you to be the Lord. All creation worships you; the everlasting Father. To you all the angels and the powers of heaven loudly cry, To you cherubim and seraphim continually sing, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of hosts; Heaven and earth are full of the majesty of your glory.

The glorious company of the apostles praise you: The noble fellowship of the prophets praise you. The white-robed army of martyrs praise you. The holy Church throughout all the world acclaims you; The Father, of majesty unbounded; Your adorable, true and only Son; And the Holy Spirit, the Counselor.

You are the King of glory, Lord Christ. You are the everlasting Son of the Father. When you became man to set us free, you humbled yourself to be born of a Virgin. When you had overcome the sting of death, you opened the kingdom of heaven to all believers. You sit at the right hand of God, in the glory of the Father. We believe that you will come again to be our Judge. Come then, Lord, we pray, and help your servants, whom you have redeemed with your precious blood. Bring us to be united with your saints, in everlasting glory.

O LORD, save your people, and bless your inheritance. Govern them, and uphold them now and always. Day by day we glorify you; And we worship your Name always, forever and ever. O Lord, by your grace, keep us this day from all sin. O Lord, have mercy on us, have mercy on us. O Lord, let your mercy rest upon us, for we put our trust in you. O Lord, I have trusted in you; let me not be abandoned at the last.

The 2nd Reading: Acts 16:6-34

The second reading is from the sixteenth chapter of the book of Acts, beginning at the sixth verse.

Paul and his companions traveled throughout the region of Phrygia and Galatia, having been kept by the Holy Spirit from preaching the word in the province of Asia. ⁷ When they came to the border of Mysia, they tried to enter Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus would not allow them to. ⁸ So they passed by Mysia and went down to Troas.

⁹ During the night Paul had a vision of a man of Macedonia standing and begging him, “Come over to Macedonia and help us.”¹⁰ After Paul had seen the vision, we got ready at once to leave for Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to preach the gospel to them.

¹¹ From Troas we put out to sea and sailed straight for Samothrace, and the next day we went on to Neapolis. ¹² From there we traveled to Philippi, a Roman colony and the leading city of that district of Macedonia. And we stayed there several days.

¹³ On the Sabbath we went outside the city gate to the river, where we expected to find a place of prayer. We sat down and began to speak to the women who had gathered there. ¹⁴ One of those listening was a woman from the city of Thyatira named Lydia, a dealer in purple cloth. She was a worshiper of God. The Lord opened her heart to respond to Paul’s message. ¹⁵ When she and the members of her household were baptized, she invited us to her home. “If you consider me a believer in the Lord,” she said, “come and stay at my house.” And she persuaded us.

¹⁶ Once when we were going to the place of prayer, we were met by a female slave who had a spirit by which she predicted the future. She earned a great deal of money for her owners by fortune-telling. ¹⁷ She followed Paul and the rest of us, shouting, “These men are servants of the Most High God, who are telling you the way to be saved.” ¹⁸ She kept this up for many days. Finally Paul became so annoyed that he turned around and said to the spirit, “In the name of Jesus Christ I command you to come out of her!” At that moment the spirit left her.

¹⁹ When her owners realized that their hope of making money was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace to face the authorities. ²⁰ They brought them before the magistrates and said, “These men are Jews, and are throwing our city into an uproar ²¹ by advocating customs unlawful for us Romans to accept or practice.”

²² The crowd joined in the attack against Paul and Silas, and the magistrates ordered them to be stripped and beaten with rods. ²³ After they had been severely flogged, they were thrown into prison, and the jailer was commanded to guard them carefully. ²⁴ When he received these orders, he put them in the inner cell and fastened their feet in the stocks.

²⁵ About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the other prisoners were listening to them. ²⁶ Suddenly there was such a violent earthquake that the foundations of the prison were shaken. At once all the prison doors flew open, and everyone’s chains came loose. ²⁷ The jailer woke up, and when he saw the prison doors open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself because he thought the prisoners had escaped. ²⁸ But Paul shouted, “Don’t harm yourself! We are all here!”

²⁹ The jailer called for lights, rushed in and fell trembling before Paul and Silas. ³⁰ He then brought them out and asked, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?”

³¹ They replied, “Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved—you and your household.” ³² Then they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all the others in his house. ³³ At that hour of the night the jailer took them and washed their wounds; then immediately he and all his household were baptized. ³⁴ The jailer brought them into his house and set a meal before them; he was filled with joy because he had come to believe in God—he and his whole household.

Jubilate:

Psalm 100

O be joyful in the Lord, all you lands: serve the Lord with gladness, and come before his presence with a song.

Be you sure that the Lord he is God; it is he that has made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise; be thankful unto him, and speak good of his Name. For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endures from generation to generation.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: As it was in the beginning, is now, and shall be forever; world without end. Amen.

The Collect for Peace

Amen.

The Collect for Grace

Heavenly Father, Almighty and Everlasting God, we thank you that you have brought us safely to the beginning of this day; defend us, your humble servants, with your mighty power, and grant that we neither fall into sin, nor run into any kind of

We thank you for the blessing of family and friends, and for the loving care which surrounds us on every side. We thank you for setting us tasks which demand our best efforts, and for leading us to accomplishments which satisfy and delight us. We thank you also for those disappointments and failures that lead us to acknowledge our dependence on you alone.

Above all, we thank you for your Son Jesus Christ; for the truth of his word and the example of his life; for his steadfast obedience, by which he overcame temptation; for his dying, through which he overcame death, for his rising to life again, in which we are raised to the life of your kingdom.

Grant us the gift of your Spirit, that we may know Christ and make him known; and through him, at all times and in all places, may give thanks to you in all things. Amen.

The Prayer Of Saint Chrysostom

Almighty God, you who have given us grace at this time to bring before you with one mind our common petitions, and have promised that when two or three are gathered together in your Name you will grant their requests: We humbly ask you to fulfill now the desires and petitions of your servants, in ways that are most suitable for them, granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the world to come everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Music During Dismissal

PLEASE READ: NOTICES ABOUT RESUMING SERVICES AT ST. DAVID'S CHURCH BEGINNING JUNE 14.

It's wonderful to be back together for worship this Sunday!

As of June 8, we have entered Phase 3 of Re-Open Saskatchewan, with new provincial Guidelines for Accommodating Worship, as well as updated new directives from our Bishops.

St. David's has resumed worship on June 14, with one service only, beginning at 9:30 a.m. (summer hours), and limited to 30 congregants only. We cannot go over this number. Our bishops have set the following directives (summarized; to read the letter, click here), and which may be updated as re-opening continues. Any updates will be posted to our "News" feed, and may effect changes. For a complete list of Directives, read the letter from the diocese available on our website.

Things of note:

As we resume services things are going to be quite a bit different. We hope in time we will see further easing of restrictions and increased numbers. As directives and guidelines change, we will change with them.

First, there will only be one service, as is usual in the summer, on Sundays at 9:30 a.m. (June-August), and limited to at this time to 30 congregants. Worship will follow the provincial and diocesan guidelines set by both as of the week of June 8. Those who are ill with a communicable disease and those who are particularly vulnerable must stay home.

Second, when you enter the Narthex, someone will greet you, and make a booklet available for you. If you take it home, we encourage you to not share it with other family members. The booklet is available on our website, stdavidspa.org.

Third, no offering will be taken up during the service. If you have an offering, please place it in the plate available outside of the sanctuary. As well, you can still use our electronic offering options, which we encourage.

Fourth, we ask you to enter the sanctuary maintaining 6 feet / 2 meters distance between you or your household, and others. Please proceed up the aisle. Pews will be marked, and each "mark" represents "a household" or individual. To respect social distancing, please beginning seating in the front pews first.

Fifth, there will be no congregational singing at this time.

Sixth, during the administration of communion, please remain in your seat. After several meetings, the wardens and rector decided the best way to maintain social distance would be to remain in your seat, rather than lining up, as some in pews would be forced to breach the two-meter distance. The priest will bring the bread to you, and must wear a mask during distribution.

Finally, when the service is over, we ask that congregants depart back pews first to exit the church, and retaining the 6 feet / 2 meters of social distance with others. The minister cannot greet you at the door, and we are not allowed to linger for fellowship in our building.

If you would like to have communion at home, please contact the rector directly to arrange a visit (306-980-7337 or email: rector@stdavidspa.org).
